PROSECUTOR CONTROL

The Porter County Prosecutor controls these charges against you. The victim can not decide that he/she does not wish to pursue the criminal charges against you. That is in the sole discretion of the Prosecutor's office.

NO CONTACT ORDER

It is likely that a No Contact Order has been entered against you. This means that you are to have no contact whatsoever with the victim, so long as this order is in effect. If you are married to the victim and have children this will preclude you from continuing to reside together and possibly having any contact with your children. If the victim chooses to have the No Contact Order lifted, Rhame & Elwood can assist he/she in doing so. There is a formal process which must be followed for this to occur.

FELONY CONVICTION

If you are convicted of a misdemeanor domestic battery you must be aware that if you are charged again, it will be charged as a felony. It is vital that you defend the first charge of domestic battery vigorously. Rhame & Elwood can assist you in doing so. The Porter County Prosecutor's office takes domestic battery very seriously. They will fight vigorously for a conviction. With Rhame & Elwood's experience and the procedures we employ it is possible that we can avoid a conviction of domestic battery for you.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE DETERMINATION

The Indiana Courts have recently been required to make Violence Determination when there is a Domestic Battery Conviction. The following is a copy of the form in which the court signs:

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE DETERMINATION

The Court, in accordance with I.C. 35-38-1-7.7, having heard evidence at trial, or based on a factual basis provided as party of guilty plea in this case now finds that the Defendant has committed a crime of domestic violence, as defined by I.C. 35-41-1-6.3. The Defendant has been advised that upon conviction he/she shall lose the right to possess a firearm, possession of a firearm or ammunition may constitute a separate crime, parenting time with a minor child may be restricted, and other legal penalties may be applicable and should be discussed with his/her attorney.

"Crime of domestic violence," as defined by I.C. 35-41-1-6.3 means an offense or the attempt to commit an offense that:

- (1.) Has as an element the:
 - (A) use of physical force; or
 - (B) threatened use of a deadly weapon; and
- (2.) Is committed against a:
 - (A) current or former spouse, parent, or guardian of the defendant;
 - (B) person with whom the defendant shared a child in common;
 - (C) person who was cohabiting with or had cohabited with the defendant as a spouse, parent or guardian; or
 - (D) person who was or had been similarly situated to a spouse, parent, or guardian of the defendant.

The Defendant was represented by counsel or made a valid waiver of counsel. The Defendant was advised of his/her right to a jury trial and either received a jury trial or knowingly waived that right.
